

Instructions for how to participate virtually:

- 1. Create a video of yourself performing any length using any device.
- 2. Be creative with your performance! Recruit other family musicians to play with you, turn the pages, or be your audience.
- 3. Send the video to the CVSM Program Manager no later than March 18th to be posted on the CVSM YouTube channel Performathon playlist.

Options for sharing video: If you cannot do one of these options, please contact me at heather@cvsmusic.org or 717-261-1220 option 5 to discuss other possibilities.

Google drive: If you have Google drive, you can upload the video there and send me a link or share it with me at heather@cvsmusic.org

Drive uploader: If you do not have your own google drive, you can upload it into my drive by using my drive uploader. Should you want to try this option, please contact me at heather@cvsmusic.org so I can send you a link to it.

Facebook: If you have a Facebook account, you could send it to me via a private message. I am listed as Heather Kline. If you cannot find me, let me know and I can help.

Dropbox: If you have a Dropbox, you could share it with me from there.

Email: Most email servers will not allow large videos; however, if your file is small enough, you can send it via email. If you have trouble because the file is too large, email me for some help with making your video smaller or finding another option.

- 5. Follow the CVSM YouTube Channel Pthon playlist to see performances shared by our Cumberland Valley School of Music community and share it on your own social media.

Questions? Email Heather Kline, CVSM Program Manager at heather@cvsmusic.org.

We really look forward to seeing your music videos, keeping us all connected and ensuring that music-making will always be available to everyone who seeks it!
